Dear Stan:

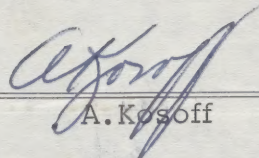

Received the 1843-C and it's a lovely coin -- a check for $900.00 is enclosed.

If the 1856-D is returned, please send it on as I have a spot for it.

Let me know what proof gold you have and what prices you have on them -- but if they are not gems I will probably pass. I like choice specimens without flaws.

Best wishes.

Dear Stan:

I have your list of November first.

I am interested in an 1860-D Gold Dollar but I have the feeling that the one you list will not quite suffice. If it is an attractive coin, I would like to see it. Let me tell you in advance it is going into a set which has some very lovely items and I will not inject an inferior piece to spoil the over-all effect.

Let me know if perhaps you know of a better one -- and an 1861-D as well. I am also looking for an 1838-C Half Eagle, if a nice one comes your way.

Sincerely,

A. Kosoff

Dear Stan:

Thanks for your check for $736.25. That leaves the 1871-CC $20.00 open.

The 1867 Eagles has been sold -- Sorry, can't do better than 5% on the 1866 Eagle.

Once you buy the coin from Kosoff (those you usually select) let the fellow who tells you he can get it from me, try. I'll be out of it. If you buy a coin from me you are entitled to a profit - So if a coin lists at $100.00 and you buy it, you are entitled to more than $100.00. Otherwise, let him try to get it himself.

What you say applies to manufactured items - coins don't fall into that category.

Regards.

Sincerely,

A. Kosoff

Dear Stan:

I returned to find your reply to my memo of July 25th regarding the 1841 $5.00 gold piece but I won't sell it for a cent under $500.00. After all, $400.00 is also a crazy price but this is just too much - It's a coin the likes of which I have never seen.

As for your letter of the 11th regarding the Proof Eagles of 1863 and 1872, I know they are tough but proofs are tough sellers right now and I've got six figures invested in them already so until it makes a turn I am going to have to hold off - except for pieces I specifically need.

With cordial regards.

Dear Stan:

I am returning the 1860-D gold dollar - it's strictly VF and not quite nice enough for my purposes - although I was almost tempted to buy it for stock - the price is reasonable but decided against it.

Best wishes.

Dear Stan:

Frankly, I'm not too keen about the 60-D gold dollar as XF.

Never hesitate to make a reasonable trade but if I figure VF and you figure XF we are far apart to start with ---- Right?

Happy New Year.

Dear Stan:

I have your letter of the 7th.

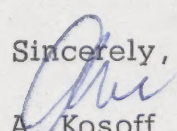

I am enclosing a list of the 2 1/2, 5, 10 and 20's as you requested. These will have to be offered subject to prior sale because I have been getting a number of orders and in fact, I was able to get your lists together promptly because I had several orders of size to fill. In addition, there are a number of things out which may or may not be sold, so guide yourself accordingly.

I did not list the St. Gaudens double eagles as I have few of those in stock. Off-hand I remember we have a 1929, 31 & 32 and a few of the D mints, like 24 and 25D and believe, also, a couple of the S mints but I expect to get a set of the St. Gaudens lacking only the 20S and 27D -- these should be in next week. Further, in addition, I might be getting a set of $3.00 gold pieces lacking only the 1875 and a set of the $1.00 gold pieces lacking only the 61D. Let me know if your man might be interested in these.

Finally, you told me to send you two coins 1838C and 1844 but you didn't tell me which denomination. If they are $2.50's they have been sold. I do have the 5's if you want them.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

A. Kosoff

Dear Stan:

Thanks for your letter of the 12th. I am sending by air registered mail the coins listed on the enclosed invoice.

A couple of pieces are out and one has been sold but I am sending all the rest of them -- also including the $5.00 1887 proof which is a lovely specimen.

I hope we don't have any misunderstanding about the 1860-D gold Dollar. Actually the problem is a question of grading I believe and I don't believe it's as nice as you think it is.

If you like, I'll sell the coin for you at the ANA Sale and just charge you a 5% handling presuming, of course, that we make some kind of a deal - otherwise it would be handling it at a loss.

The set of gold dollars, $3.00 gold and St. Gaudens Double Eagles which I mentioned to you belong to a client and they are to be sold as sets so it will have to be on that basis that I work it. Otherwise, of course, I would have to charge higher figures on the individual items than you could probably pay and we couldn't work out a deal. I think if you can use the rarer dates you undoubtedly could afford to keep the balance of them in stock for your profit. The same should be true about the St. Gaudens double eagles.

Please let me hear from you as early as possible.

A. Kosoff

Dear Stan:

I have your check and coins and everything checks out.

In fact, everything always works out for the best. After talking to you I thought I was out of my mind to give you that price on the 1887 $5.00 piece. Now that it's back I certainly would not quote that figure again. In fact, I won't let it go under $2750.00.

Best regards.

Dear Stan:

Thank you for your kind letter of the 13th.

As you may well imagine, I have been up to my ears and today I am getting away for about 10 days. I may have some other items you need, but all I can think of at the moment are the following:

$20.00, 1891 CC	$525.00
$10.00, 1907 rolled edge with periods	$7,500.00

I am reasonably sure that I have some of the others but it would have to wait for my return in about 10 days.

I do have a set of Double Eagles of the St. Gaudens type lacking only the 1920-S and 27-D. The owner wants me to get $25,000.00 for the set.

Best regards,

Dear Stan:

I have your letter of the 19th of August and sorry I could not respond sooner as I have only just returned to the office.

At the moment I find the 1871-CC Double Eagle on your list that I can use, but it really has to be AU. I say I did not quite agree on your grading on the 1870-CC which I saw in Philadelphia. In fact, I was lucky I did not get the coin because my party ran into another specimen.

If the 1871 is really choice please send it on.

I will try to get back to your list and see if I have anything to supply from your wants.
